Grayling Man Charged With Assault on Officer

Five warrants were issued on Friday, August 17, for a Grayling man following a car chase that began at the intersection of M-72 East and the I-75 Business Loop in Grayling and ended with a foot race near Four Mile Road. During the pursuit, the suspect allegedly attempted to run over a Grayling patrolman with his pickup after he rammed the officer's patrol car.

Steven Gildner, 28, of Grayling, was apprehended by Crawford County Sheriff deputies and charged with assault with intent to do great bodily harm less than murder, assault with a dangerous weapon, operating a vehicle under the influence of liquor, driving while his operators license was suspended, and fleeing and eluding police. Gildner was arraigned in District Court on August 21 and bond was set at $26,500, 10 percent surety. His preliminary examination was set for Wednesday, August 28.

Gildner fled from city patrolman Dennis Long at about 3:30 a.m. Friday when Long attempted to stop him for running a red light and for having no license plate on his pickup truck. The chase began at the intersection of M-72 West and the Business Loop, going through town to the Grayling Industrial Park.

While in the industrial park, Gildner tried to further elude police by taking a trail road. When Patrolman Long continued the pursuit, Gildner rammed the police car with his pickup. Gildner then tried to jump a set of railroad tracks, becoming momentarily stuck. According to Patrolman Long, as he approached the suspect's truck on foot, Gildner turned his truck, striking Long and knocking him down. Gildner then attempted to back over Long. The officer fired seven shots into the rear tire of the approaching truck, deflating the tire, and preventing the truck from backing up any further.

Gildner then tried to drive the truck down the railroad tracks, but eventually abandoned it and fled on foot into the woods. He was apprehended several minutes later on Four Mile Road near AJD Forest Products.

Patrolman Long was assisted in the chase and apprehension by Sheriff deputies. Long was treated by the Crawford County Ambulance Corps for minor scratches and bruises.

B & E Suspects Charged Here

Two Gaylord men were arraigned before Judge Francis Walsh in 83rd District Court on Tuesday, August 28, on charges of breaking and entering an occupied dwelling.

Kenneth James Filcek, 20, and his brother, Gary Theodore Filcek, 18, were arrested on August 23, for allegedly breaking into the Raymond C. Lange home on Hannor Trail.

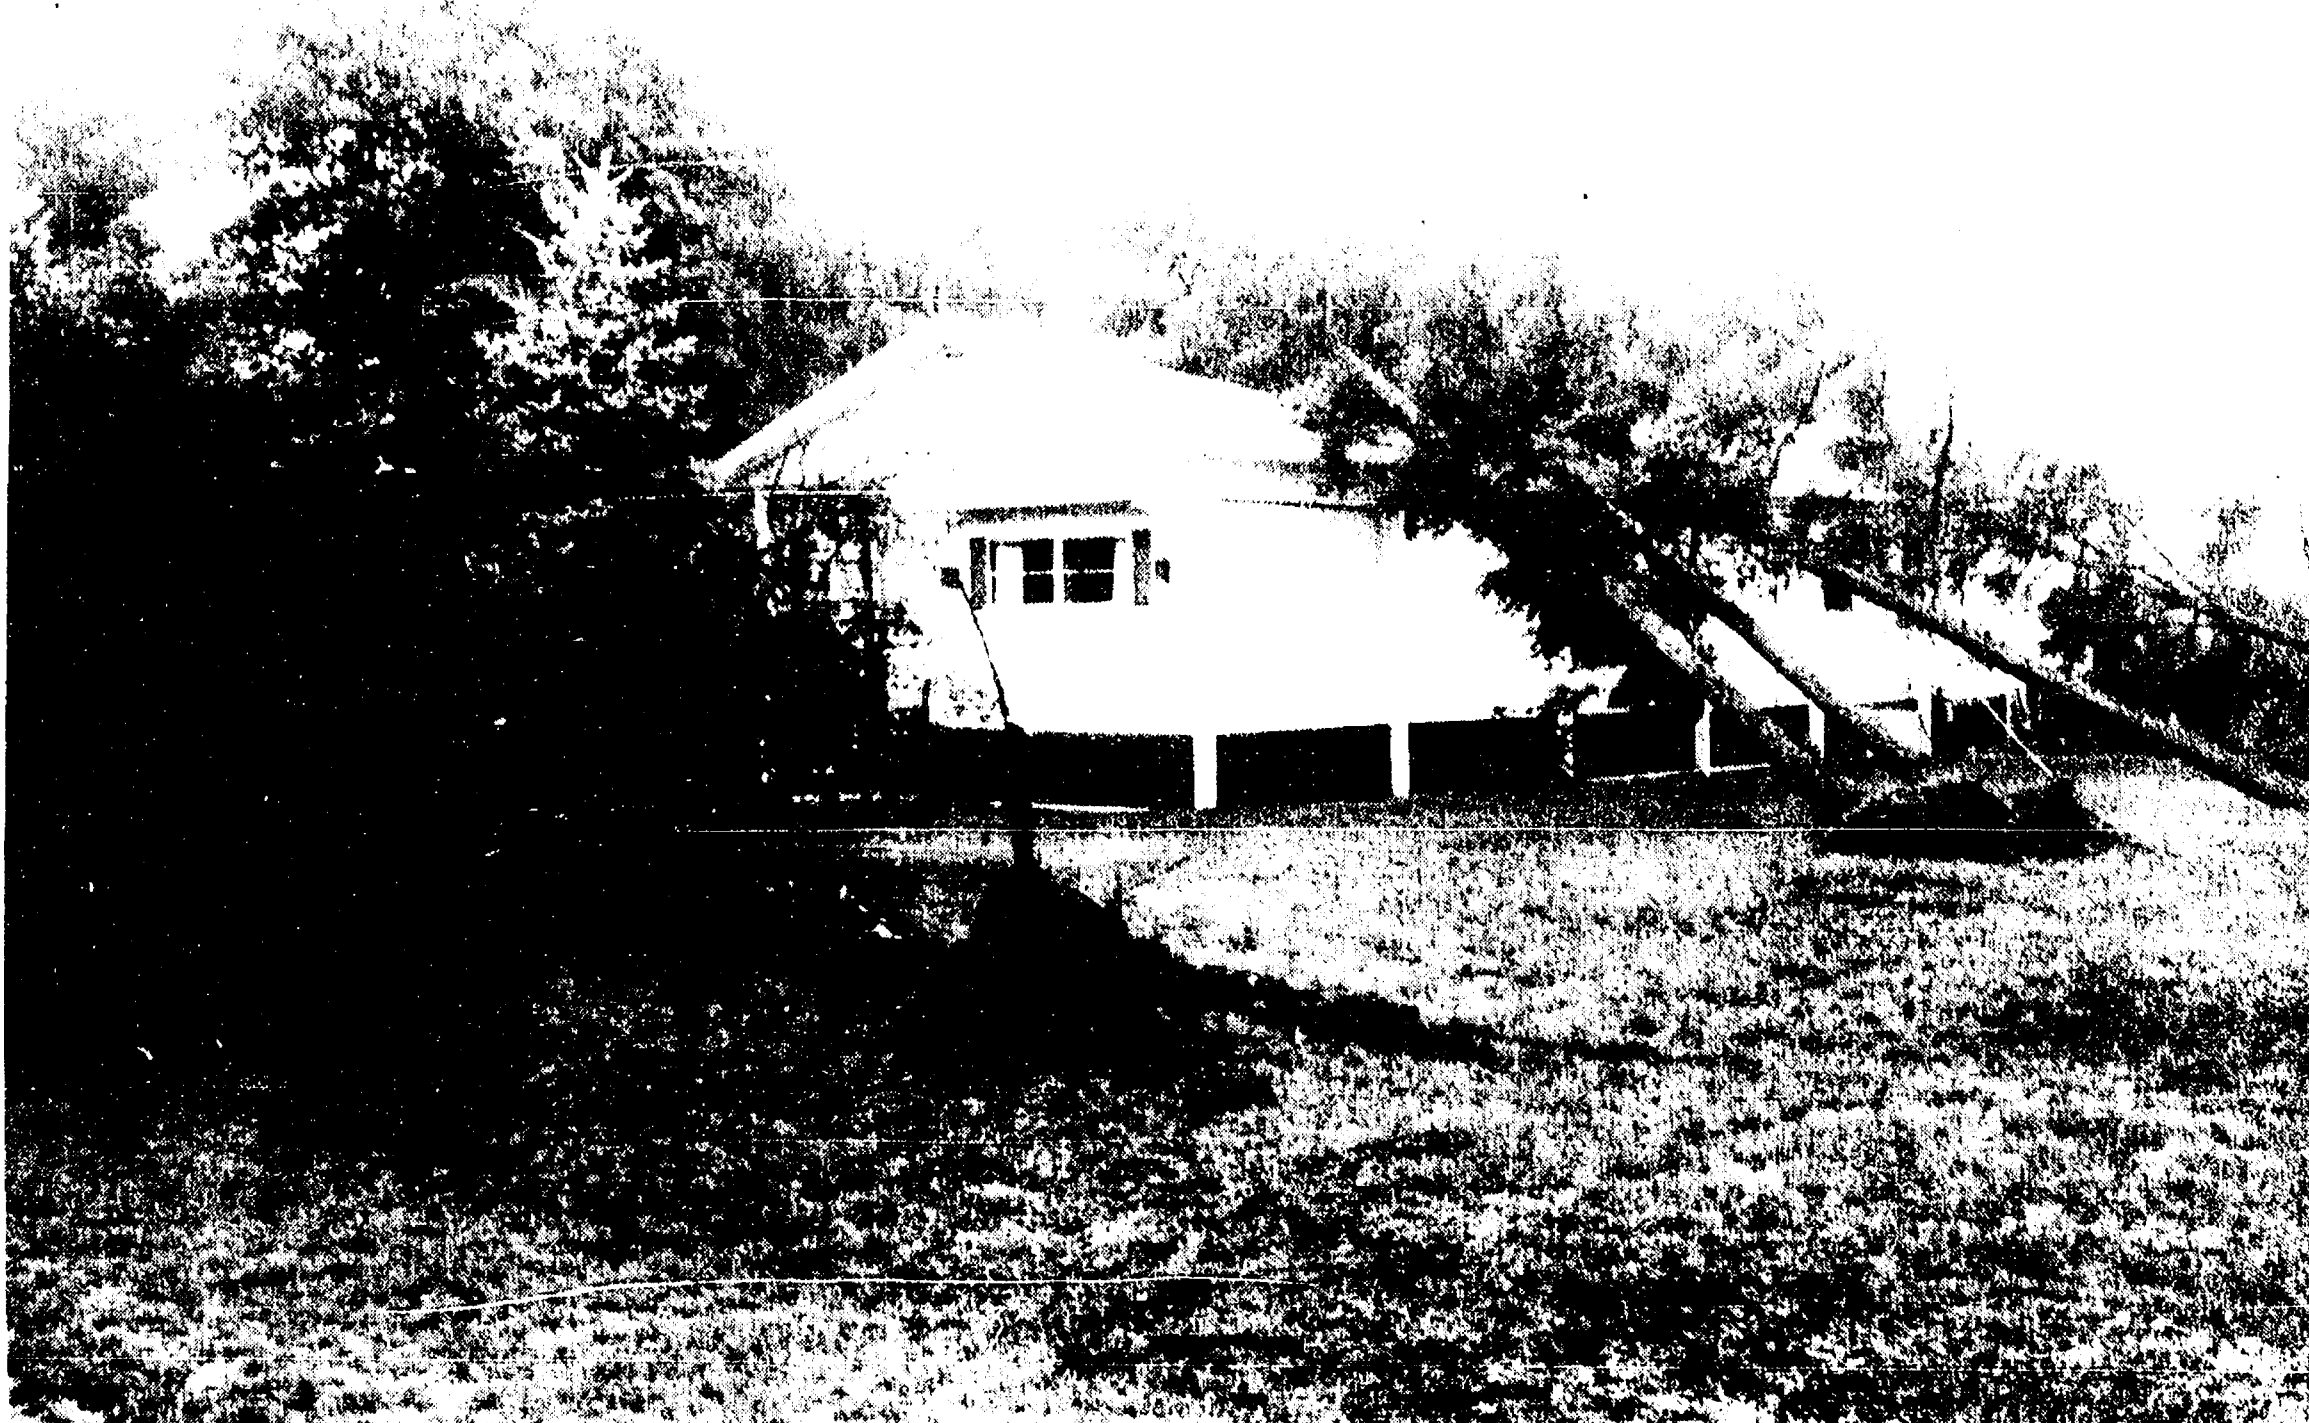

According to a spokesman at the Crawford County Sheriff Dept., Lange and his son, Don, surprised the two intruders when they arrived home at a little after 3 p.m. Thursday. Don Lange caught one suspect, but the second man escaped.

The Sheriff dept. requested the assistance of the Michigan State Police tracking dog from Gaylord, but deputies apprehended the second suspect about 30 minutes later and the call was cancelled.

Bond for Kenneth Filcek was set at $20,000, 10 percent cash surety. Gary Filcek's bond was set at $10,000, 10 percent cash surety.

Both men remain lodged in the Crawford County Jail.

Storm Damages Mobile Home Estates

Strong winds caused about $100,000 damage at Mobile Home Estates, northeast of Grayling, between 8-9 p.m. Monday, Aug. 27.

Approximately 10 buildings received major structural damage and a couple of cars were crushed by falling trees, estimated Bill Borchers, Crawford County Equalization Director. Close to two hundred trees were knocked over or uprooted by the wind. The falling trees put holes and dents in roofs and homes. Many windows and out-buildings were broken or ruined. A few mobile homes were moved several feet during the storm. North Down River Road was blocked by fallen trees and downed power lines. Borchers said most of the $100,000 in damages will come from cleaning up and restoring electrical power costs.

Borchers said the storm was officially called a wind storm and not a tornado. But he noted several trees were spun off or twisted and some were splintered. He also said some trees uprooted were oaks and it takes a lot to uproot some oaks.

The wind storm apparently came from the northwest side of Mobile Home Estates, touching down just inside the mobile home community. One residence that was passed over by the storm had a six-foot-high sunflower still standing. A hundred yards farther east, the damage was extensive.

Dale Pettengill, who had several trees fall on his home along Pinecrest, said there wasn't a lot of rain or wind before the storm hit. His power went off at 8:45 p.m.

Another Mobile Home Estates resident left in his car while trees were crashing all around, but by the time he reached the I-75 exchange, just around the corner, there was hardly any wind.

Several men working on a race car at John Failing's home north of the airport saw the storm hit. Rick O'Brien said a huge black cloud started coming together and they could see a circle in the middle where the wind was swirling around. The sky was a strange orange-red and as the black cloud was forming, a cool wind hit them.

The storm traveled southeast through Mobile Home Estates and hit only a few trees on the east side of North Down River Road.

Crawford County sheriff deputies along with Grayling and Frederic firemen went door to door in the area checking on residents. No one was reported injured.

Consumers Power employees were called to the area and began repairing power lines and cutting trees. Crawford County Road Commissioners workers cleared roads and cut trees. By daylight, homeowners and private contractors were busy cutting trees and cleaning up debris. No one was forced to leave their home during the storm, said sheriff deputies, but power was lost to the area.

Middle East Crisis Hits Home Hard

By Irene Pettyjohn

The Middle East crisis has begun to affect Crawford County residents more than just at the gas pump. Thirteen servicemen from our area are in the Persian Gulf area and 56 men of the 1438th Engineer Detachment, headquartered at Camp Grayling, are on telephone standby waiting for their active duty orders.

"We don't know when the 1438th will get their call to mobilize," said MAJ Jerold Foehl, Camp Grayling Public Affairs Officer, "but we know it will come."

MAJ Foehl said the Grayling unit does not know whether it will stay at Camp Grayling, be sent somewhere in the United States, or be sent directly overseas.

The 1438th consists of construction contractors such as plumbers, electricians, carpenters, masons, heating and refrigeration specialists, and heavy equipment operators.

Unit Commander is 1LT Victor Briley, of Vienna. He has 15 years with the National Guard. CW3 Michael J. Thorne, of West Branch, is 1LT Briley's executive officer and has 19 years of service with the military; three years active duty with the Army and 16 years with the Michigan National Guard.

Noncommissioned officers are SSG Michael John Campbell, Jr. and SGT Ronald Hall, both of Grayling. SGT Hall is with the Active Guard Reserve and is the unit's full-time readiness noncommissioned officer.

For security reasons, Gov. Blanchard said the Department of Defense requested that troop lists, missions, and eventual destinations be withheld.

"The men of the 1438th will probably use this 'standby' period to get their personal business in order," speculated MAJ Foehl. He said unit administrators are probably busy updating individual mobilization papers.

"One risk to the soldier is that his pay won't be sent to the right person or address," he explained.

"I'm sure they are all wondering when the next call is coming," said MAJ Foehl.

The call-up was made by the Secretary of Defense as authorized by President George Bush under provisions of the "War Powers Act," 10 USC 6733b. Under this legislation, the President can call into active duty a maximum of 200,000 Reserve and National Guard members for up to 180 days without the approval of Congress or governors.

Four Michigan Guard units were called to active duty by Governor James Blanchard on Friday, August 24. The units consist of approximately 350 citizen-soldiers and include:

- Detachment Two, Company E of the 106th Aviation Regiment, headquartered in Grand Ledge, authorized for 107 persons.

- 1461st Transportation Company, headquartered in Jackson, authorized for 173 persons.

- 1009th Transportation Corps Detachment (Movement Control), headquartered in Lansing, authorized for 13 persons.

- 1438th Engineering Detachment (Utility), headquartered at Camp Grayling, authorized for 56 persons.

While on active duty, the volunteers will be paid with federal funds and receive the same pay and benefits as active duty personnel.

LOCAL SERVICEMEN HEAD EAST

The list of local servicemen serving in Saudi Arabia or enroute to the Persian Gulf area is growing each day.

As a member of the Army's Delta Elite Force, 82nd Airborne, SFC James Bobenmoyer was among the first units to arrive in Saudi Arabia.

SFC Bobenmoyer has been stationed at Fort Bragg, North Carolina, for 14 years. He is a paratrooper instructor, who has served in Granada and Panama.

"With four sons in the service, I am very upset over what is happening in the East," said Jim's mother, Elaine.

Don and Elaine Bobenmoyer's sons are in the Army (Jim), Air Force (Paul), Active National Guard (Keith), and Michigan National Guard (David).

Elaine has been calling Jim's classmates and asking them to write to him.

"It's important that these guys know that they have support back home," she said. "It doesn't take much, just a short note saying, 'I'm thinking of you.'"

Elaine also feels it is important that the parents of the men and women from Crawford County serving overseas keep in touch with each other as another means of support. She welcomes all telephone calls at 348-2076.

Lance Corporal James Devriendt has been stationed in Saudi Arabia with Alpha Company for about three weeks now. His step-brother, CPO John Quest, also with the U.S. Marine Corps, is stationed in the Philippines with Weapons Company, 81st Battalion.

"I'm very worried about both my sons," said Gertude Quest. "I work to keep myself busy. My mind is in constant turmoil these days."

Quest said her son, John, could be sent to Saudi Arabia anytime.

"They never know what's happening next," she said. "Nobody tells them anything. Right now the Philippines is not a nice place to be."

U.S. Marine Lance Corporal Rusty Argue left Morehead City, North Carolina, on Tuesday, August 21, at 7:30 p.m.

"Rusty was able to call his wife, Jeannie, and talk for a few minutes after he had left the armory where he was issued his guns," said his mother, Connie. "We think he shipped out that day because we haven't heard from him since then," she said.

She said Rusty was supposed to sail on the USS Trenton, but they heard later that he left on the USS Iwo Jima.

"We're all doing a lot of praying," she said. "We know they are all going to come home safely."

LCpl. Argue is married to the former Jeannie Restainer, who

Each day I grabbed the daily newspapers for detailed accounts of Kuwait and Middle East developments. After the initial surge of news the first few days, other news items — some of them quite silly or frivolous — started taking over the front page again.

It's disappointing and shocking to read news that makes you feel as if some Americans care more gas prices here than the possibility of our soldiers going to war.

As of Monday at least thirteen local military men are on their way or already in Saudi Arabia and 56 local National Guards have been activated and may be sent overseas. These soldiers and their families deserve every consideration and kindness friends, neighbors, and businesses can give them.

Some folks around here feel if this type of Iraqi invasion had occurred in the 1930s or 1940s, Americans would band together to ration or conserve oil and gasoline, develop other energy alternatives, and kick their dependency on Middle East oil. They would sacrifice to keep American soldiers away from the war.

Why can't Americans in the 1990s do this?

An area woman has asked all of us to tie yellow ribbons around flag poles, posts, and car mirrors to show support for our soldiers going to the Middle East. It's the least we do to show we care more about our soldiers than the price of gasoline.

Let's Talk About It

Remember what a special day it used to be when the new mail order catalogs came. Sometimes on the same day, Sears Roebuck and Montgomery Ward mailed their big catalogs to just about every household in the country. They supplied goods to the people right from the early days. A lot of folks had to depend on mail order companies to supply whatever was needed.

From those old catalogs you could order just about anything from a pre-cut house to a side of bacon. Farm tools, harnesses and saddles, axes and saws of every kind could be had if you had the price. Clothing, shoes, beds, bedding and toys for the baby were there.

We ordered our shoes from them for you didn't have to worry about size—just send along an outline of your foot and they would send shoes that fit most of the time. Kids only got one, or at the most, two pairs of shoes a year so they were kind of big when you first got them. They seemed to understand and sent shoes a size or two larger to allow for growth.

The old time catalog was called a wish book for they had so many things we could only wish for. I remember when I was a boy there was a wagon with a wood rack that I did a lot of wishing for. I would carefully compare the wagons in the two catalogs to try to determine just which one to wish for. Wish was about all I could do for I think the price of this Cadillac of wagons was a mind boggling twelve dollars.

They sent their catalogs twice a year—the spring/summer and fall/winter editions. When the new catalogs arrived the old ones found their way to the outhouse to use for toilet paper. When they started to use colored illustrations on slick paper the thinner, softer, noncolored pages were highly prized. The catalog would keep getting thinner and thinner until those slick colored pages were all that was left. The last of the good stuff went fast as we all ripped out a supply and stashed them away hoping to avoid using the slick stuff. Now that I think about it maybe that was the reason we were so happy when the new catalogs came. Knowing it would improve the quality of our toilet paper.

Those young people of today who have never had to use an outhouse and sit down on those cold boards when it was thirty below, will never know how great it felt to turn back on the roaring wood stove when you finally got back in the house.

This is just one of my WOULD'N'T IT BE NICE if say next spring all that were able would get together for one weekend for a clean up and fix up bee. Maybe paint a house or two for old folks, do some repairs and just generally spruce up the Crawford County area for the summer season. Maybe make a real gala affair of it with a big picnic to wind it up on Sunday afternoon. Think of all we could accomplish if we all worked together for just one weekend a year. how about it—willing to give it a shot?

Reverend Asks What The Purpose Of Parade Entry Was

Concerning the Rotary's entry, "Reverend Leroy and the Deacons," in the 1990 Milltown Parade, it seemed like wisdom and discretion was somewhere out with the Magellan Space Probe. An individual stated to me if he'd known something like their presentation was going to be included in the parade, he would have stayed home. He also said the Ministerial Association should ask the Rotary to apologize to the city. That view may be a little stern, maybe not. The ministers have not formally met since the parade and I am not speaking on behalf of the Ministerial Association, but the question could be asked; what was the purpose of local businessmen, community and civic leaders, even school officials, dressing up in choir robes, then with black gospel music playing, to parade down the street, dancing, seemingly to praise God, begging for money? Was it to enhance the ministry of the local churches? Was it to make a racial statement? Was it to make fun and mock a form of worship?

The giving of tithes and offerings to a local church is an act of worship. We give to God because we love Him and want to support His work. Love for Jesus Christ should motivate us. I can honestly say that I love those men who were involved but I don't think they considered the consequences and ramifications of their actions. If they don't know Jesus Christ personally, they need to. We need to heed the apostle Paul's words in 1 Timothy 2:14, where he urges us to pray for those in authority that we can lead to quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty. He says this is acceptable to God, who desires all men to be saved and come to know the truth. Proverbs 11:11 says, "By the blessing of the upright the city is exalted; but it is overthrown by the mouth of the wicked." (KJV) What do we desire for the city of Grayling? It is something to think about.

Military I.D. Should Be Accepted As Proof Of Age

While passing through Grayling recently, I stopped at a store there to buy a soda and a snack. While waiting in line at the cashier's till I noticed a sign at a different register that said something to the effect that out-of-state driver's licenses and Military I.D. cards are not acceptable as proof of age when purchasing alcoholic beverages.

Now, the out-of-state licenses I can understand; California has had this policy for years, including for entry into a night club, bar, etc. But to not accept a United States Military I.D. card as proof of age is in itself unacceptable as a standing policy.

A U.S. Military Identification card is acceptable worldwide at international airports in lieu of a passport—not in all countries, but in too many to list here—but is not acceptable in your store. This same I.D. card is acceptable as proof of U.S. citizenship (for officers) at U.S. and foreign embassies throughout the world, but is still not acceptable at your store. A U.S.

Military I.D. card entitles the holder to certain privilege, both on base and off, that he or she more than deserves just for the sacrifices made and the B.S. dealt with that is a part of being in the military. But alas, it is not acceptable at the Grayling store.

Granted, not everyone in our armed forces is totally honest and upstanding, but should the majority who are honest suffer because of those who aren't? I say NO!

Having served in the Navy for 13 years (I just recently got out) I have seen and experienced the attitudes and feelings of the "off-base community" toward the military member all over the U.S. and in several overseas locations. In too many cases, the despise of the military member is unwarranted and is usually the result of one or two instances of misconduct by a few bad apples. This leaves a sour taste in people's mouths and thus turns their attitudes sour toward the entire military community. From here, discrimination against this same community is bred and evolves—unfairly.

I am not saying that this is the case in Grayling; I am only voicing my experiences as a 13 year veteran. I have seen "Boot Camp" I.D. cards that do not in the least look like the card holder—most of these "Boot Camp" I.D.'s are probably like this. But neither is this a reason to classify all military I.D. cards as unacceptable.

Understandably, you would wish to protect your license by setting policy whereby proof of age is virtually irrefutable. But nation-wide and the world over a Military I.D. card commands far more respect and acceptability than any state driver's license and, in some states and many countries, is preferred over a U.S. Passport.

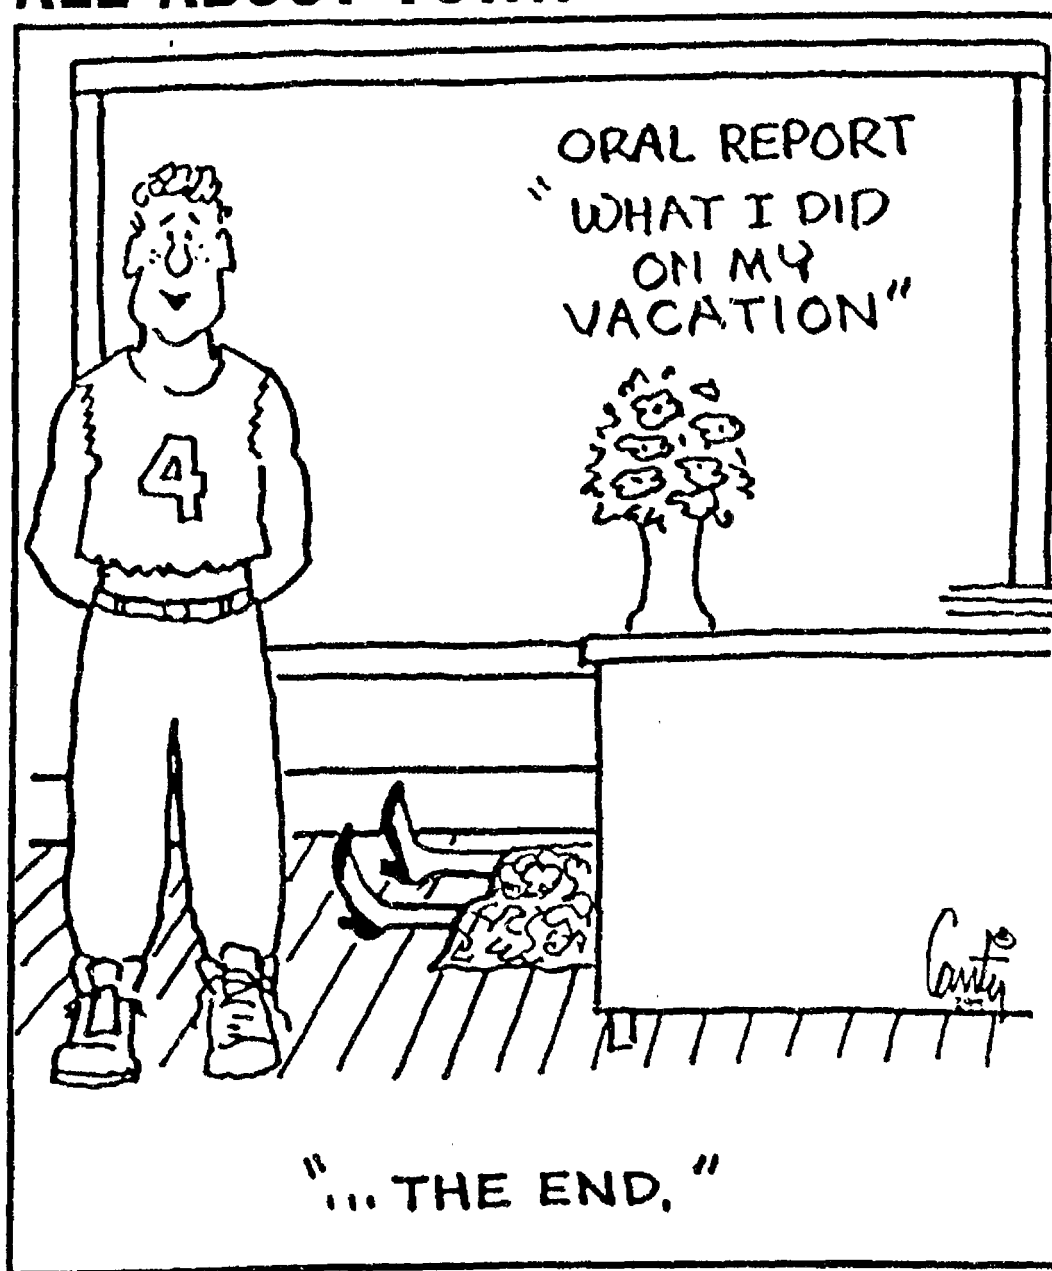

I spoke with the Michigan State Police Public Affairs Officer in Grayling and he assures me that forgery of Military I.D. cards is almost unheard of. So, in my eyes, that defense is invalid.

My former comrades are still my comrades and I am proud of their service to our country. They are the reason that you and I have freedom and democracy, and they deserve our gratitude and respect—not discrimination.

I respectfully request that you review your present policy and make the necessary changes to correct this injustice to our country's service members.

Recycling Corner

Disposable diapers. Each child that wears them from infancy until toilet training is completed, goes through about 7,000 of them. Eighteen billion are buried in landfills each year and can take up to 500 years to decompose. That's a lot of diapers piling up. The reason they don't break down is because the plastic is very durable. It has to be when it comes in contact with ammonia and uric acid.

Disposal of human feces is supposed to be prohibited by solid waste regulations, but the enforcement on this doesn't seem to be taking effect. Some labels on disposable diaper packages may have instructions to flush the liner. This can clog household plumbing however, and is not real good for septic systems. Most people wouldn't flush it even if it was safe. It's much easier to throw it away. Disposables are convenient and now even cute with all the Disney and Sesame Street characters on the waistband. But they are a part of our solid waste problem and that cannot be ignored.

Do your know what a disposable diaper is made of? First, it consists of the outer plastic covering which starts as petroleum. Then wood pulp is used as the filler or padding of the diaper. Last, there is the paper liner. The diaper can also contain perfumes, flame-retardant chemicals, and dioxin (involved in the bleaching process). Any brand of diaper labeled super or ultra absorbant contains a gel compound in the filler. No one really knows the effects of these chemicals on the babies. On the other hand, no one has claimed they are completely safe. By applying creams and lotions to the babies bottom and placing a disposable over it, allows the perfect opportunity for dioxins to be transmitted from diaper to baby. The thought of chemicals being absorbed that close to a baby's reproductive organs should be frightening. The skin is a very sensitive organ. All types of substances are absorbed through it.

Babies tend to have more rashes from disposables than from cloth diapers. It is hard for air to circulate in something that is completely covered in plastic. I know from my own experience that whenever I used disposables on my children (which was only for traveling or convenience for a sitter), they always broke out in a rash. I have seen rashes on other babies that never seem to go away completely. These are babies that are constantly in disposables. The skin temperature on a baby can rise to 104 from being encased in plastic. This, mingled with the waste matter creates a perfect environment for bacteria. There is also the danger of wood splinters and metal scraps in the filler causing injury to the baby.

Cloth diapers which are cotton, breathe so that the skin stays cooler. They are far more comfortable and can decompose in six months. Ammonia isn't trapped in a cloth diaper which means less chance of diaper rash. Some hospitals still use cloth diapers and others have discontinued the use of the super-absorbant disposables because the absorption process is so great on a newborn's skin that it has been known to shrivel because of cellular fluid being drawn away from the body.

As a parent you may think you need disposables, but think of the risk you are posing to your child and the environment. Throw-away diapers mean a lot of untreated fecal matter lying around. 100 or more viruses can be in human excrement. This means waste that can contain polio and intestinal disease. Waste that contaminates ground water. The manufacturing of these diapers depletes timber and petroleum resources and adds to the litter problem. They shouldn't even be called disposable. They aren't going anywhere. They are just piling up.

Parents think of cloth diapers as messy and inconvenient. But even with disposables there can be mess too. Washing a load of diapers never was too difficult for me considering the machine did the work. I would much rather wash diapers than have them sitting in my garbage. I also felt better about putting a fresh diaper on my baby made from something natural. Cloth diapers do require a bit of attention after changing them as far as rinsing off soil and soaking them, but the whole process takes three minutes at the most.

You can save more than five dollars each week by using cloth diapers instead of disposables, and slightly less than five dollars by using a diaper service. Think about your baby's health, the condition of the environment and the illusion of the disposable diaper. Recently I read an article on the composting of diapers. Proctor & Gamble has done it in St. Cloud, Minnesota. They recycle the plastic part of the diaper and compost the liner into soil enhancer. This is a relatively new concept and if it works then that's great, considering there are people out there that will always use disposables no matter what. I have sent for more information on it and will print it as soon as I receive it.

I hope this bit of information on disposables will make parents think twice before diapering their baby with a throw-away diaper. Even if you can alternate between cloth and disposable, it would be a step in the right direction. Soon you will see the difference in your baby, in your pocketbook, and in your garbage.

Display Flag To Show Support

It's August, 1990, but it's cool here in Michigan U.S.A. I wonder how our troops in the Middle East are doing? Just about everyone knows someone who is there or ready to go.

I'm so very proud to be a citizen of the U.S.A. We all have rights that a lot of countries just dream about.

I realize it's not the 4th of July, but I'd sure like to see every home and business display our American Flag from now until the Middle East crisis is settled, in a show of support for our troops and our country and our citizens held hostage.

Everyone has a right to disagree and have their own opinion. That's just one of the privileges of being a U.S. citizen.

Most Folks Are Satisfied

A RECENT POLL indicates that most people in Michigan are satisfied with their quality of life.

That's good news for half the candidates running in this year's elections, and bad news for the other half.

Which is which depends upon whether the candidate already is in office, or is running against someone who is.

Usual political wisdom dictates that when a voter is happy with the way things are going for him/her personally, then she/he will be apt to vote to keep in office those already there.

But if the voter is unhappy, then he/she will opt for change, and vote against those already in office.

The recent poll was conducted for the Detroit Free Press and Detroit broadcaster WXYZ by Market Opinion Research.

The poll also showed that 63 percent of respondents think their lives are "very fulfilling," and only 9 percent felt "down in the dumps."

IF CONVENTIONAL POLITICAL wisdom is to be believed, then Republican challengers John Engler for governor and Bill Schuette for U.S. senator have a tough job ahead. If people generally like the way things are, then they probably agree that Democrats James Blanchard as governor and Carl Levin as senator have been doing a good job.

But is that the way things really work out?

For example, if people like the way things are, do they credit Mr. Blanchard, a Democrat, or George Bush, the Republican president? And if Mr. Bush is the reason for voter satisfaction, shouldn't voters favor the Bush party, and therefore Mr. Engler instead of Mr. Blanchard?

And as for Mr. Levin, if voters like the way Congress has been working, and Mr. Levin has been a part of that Congress, then why not vote for Mr. Schuette, who also has been a member of Congress—although on the other side of the capitol dome and the other side of the political aisle.

And if a voter has a Republican state house member as his/her representative, but a democratic state senator, and maybe a Republican congressman, but a Democratic United States senator, and a Democratic governor, but a Republican president.....well, how should that voter decide in November? The answer is obvious: Citizen contentment is only one of a variety of factors involved in deciding how to vote.

Political operative Gary Bachula hit the nail right on the head.

"When you ask people about their own lives," commented Mr. Bachula, who is Gov. Blanchard's campaign manager, "a whole lot of them don't relate it to politics."

MEDIA BIAS—Words can be powerful weapons, depending on how they're used.

The same words used in different ways can carry different meanings, and the use of certain value-laden words by the public media often can reveal much more than the writer/speaker intended to show.

Those involved in the struggle for and against abortion frequently complain that members of the media are biased, one way or another. Usually the complaint comes from those who seek to outlaw abortion, with the claim that the liberal pre-abortion biases of members of the media frequently show in their coverage.

There may be some merit in these charges. It is difficult for most writers to screen their own preferences from their copy—especially if the writer feels strongly about the subject.

But is it fair to the reader/listener? And is it fair to the news subject?

In recent coverage of Michigan's legislative primary races, describing an Oakland County primary, one reporter referred to the candidates thus: "Dobb is pro-choice; Schlusel is anti-abortion."

Why not list Ms. Dobb as "pro-abortion," and Ms. Schlusel as "pro-life"? Ms. Schlusel likely would have preferred that wording, and Ms. Dobb would not.

It's all in the choice of a couple of key words.

Is it bias, or is it lack of sensitivity, or carelessness?

Or is the whole thing simply a case of thin skinned overreaction?

Intended or not, the use of particular words or phrases can color a story.

is staying with her parents, Eugene and Myrna Restainer of Grayling, while her husband is overseas. He is the son of Ross and Connie Argus.

Donald Bentley was promoted on August 27 to Private First Class and is serving with the U.S. Army Infantry in Saudi Arabia. PFC Bentley's wife, Denise, lives in Hinesville, GA. His mother Mrs. Donald Bentley lives in Grayling.

AMS Scott Howe is a Navy aircraft structural mechanic stationed aboard the aircraft carrier, John F. Kennedy. He left for the Persian Gulf on August 15. He is the son of John and Nancy Howe.

HT1 Scott Gregory Bly also sailed with the John F. Kennedy when it left its home port, Norfolk, VA. HT1 Bly works in the ship's metal shop as a pipe fitter. He was recently promoted to Petty Officer First Class.

HT1 Bly's younger sister, Jessica, who is in the third grade, has begun watching news broadcasts about the Persian crisis. Her mother said she is very interested in what is going in America, too, especially the use of yellow ribbons to keep everyone focused on the Middle East.

"Jessica, and I were watching CNN news at 11:30 Wednesday morning and we saw the Kennedy sail out of Norfolk," said his mother, Sharon. "I wish he was coming home instead of leaving."

Bly said the Persian Gulf is about 7,000 miles from Virginia and it will take 13 or 14 days for the ship to reach its destination. "They should be arriving any day," she said.

HT1 Bly joined the Navy about 18 months ago, shortly after he had graduated from Grayling High School.

"Scott was planning to come home in November for hunting season, but there's no chance of that now," Sharon said. "Now we don't expect him home until March."

HT1 Bly is the son of Harry and Sharon Bly. Marine LCpl. Joel Wegner, son of Grace Dopp Wegner, embarked for the Persian Gulf aboard the USS Newport, LST 1179.

LCpl. Wegner is a Combat Engineer attached to the Lima Company, BLT 3rd Battalion, 8th Marines, 26th MEU.

AMS2 Neil Tones was recently promoted to the rank of E-5 and is serving on the USS Independence, now in the Persian Gulf. He is the son of Albert and Carol Tones of Frederic.

Airman First Class Ronald Bancroft is on his ship's roster to go to Saudi Arabia when his AC130 gun ship disembarks. AM1 Bancroft is stationed at Hulbert Field in Florida.

"I know as an American citizen we are where we have to be," said AM1 Bancroft's mother, Virginia, "and Ron has said the same thing, but as his mom..."

"Now with Iraq demanding that our embassy personnel clear out, I can't help wondering what affect each new step will have on the situation over there."

AM1 Bancroft was married about a month ago to Penelope Pippins.

Jeff Reichelderfer is also on standby with his Army Reserve unit, headquartered in Traverse City. Reichelderfer has been stationed at Camp Grayling this summer.

SM2 Tim Stephan, son of Jay Stephan, is aboard the USS Mississippi, escorting the aircraft carrier John F. Kennedy to the Middle East. SM2 Stephan has been the ship's captain's cook for three years, and was even nominated to cook for the vice-president.

Master Chief Petty Officer Richard Campbell, stationed in Norfolk, VA, is awaiting orders for his ship's departure to the Persian Gulf. MCPO Campbell has made a career of the Navy, having served 27 1/2 years. He is the son of Betty McFarlane.

CPL Scott VanDeVen, son of Martin and Paulette VanDeVen, is in the Middle East serving with the U.S. Marine Corps.

GMM3 Donald May is aboard the destroyer USS Goldsborgh, one of seven ships traveling with the USS Independence in the Persian Gulf.

This is GMM3 May's second tour of duty in the Persian Gulf region. He was also there during the Libyan crisis. He has been in the Gulf since early June and the USS Goldsborgh was among the ships that trailed an Iraqi oil tanker all the way to South Africa to insure that it did not off-load its cargo of crude oil.

Latchkey Program Starts This Fall

St. John Lutheran Church's Open Heart Care Center will be offering a latchkey program this fall. The program will provide a supervised safe environment for children of working parents who might otherwise go home after school to an empty house. Open house and registration will take place on September 10 and the program will open its doors about two weeks later. It will continue through the end of the school year. Hours are from 3 - 6 p.m., Monday through Friday. Latchkey program director Lynn Johnson said she became aware of the need for an after school program two years ago through her association with 4-H director Shelly Hubbard. While Hubbard was conducting a Street Smart Program for first, second and third grade students in the area's elementary schools she asked how many of the students were going home to an empty house after school. To her amazement, about half of the children raised their hands.

The two women have been exploring how and where a latchkey program could be offered to these children ever since.

"Even if a child is old enough to go home after school alone," said Lynn, who has an associates degree in child care and development from Kirtland Community College, "he may still be scared or lonely. Often children accept the situation because they know their parents have to work."

Several months ago, Lynn approached her congregation with her concerns.

"When we learned about this need, we decided to act upon it as part of our ministry and service to the community," said Rev. Robert Gordon, Pastor of St. John Lutheran Church.

"Ministry and faith is not just something that happens one hour on Sunday morning," he said. "The ministry of a church is what it does the rest of the week."

Rev. Gordon said of the 108 adult members of his congregation, 25 have been actively involved in the program.

St. John's latchkey program offers an alternative to area parents faced with having to send their children home alone after school. The program is available to students, grades K-8, in the Crawford AuSable schools, who come from families where both parents work or from single parent families where the parent is working. Enrollment is limited to 25 students. When the center is filled, a waiting list will be started. Students with special needs, physical or emotional disabilities will be considered on an individual basis.

A bus, either a school bus or dial-a-ride, will take students from the Grayling Elementary School to the church. St. John Lutheran Church is located only two blocks from the Grayling Middle School, at 710 Spruce Street.

Before the program could be licensed by the Department of Education, church members had to bring their building up to fire codes and meet several other state licensing requirements. This included building a barrier free rest room, installing a metal door to separate the basement where the furnace is located from the main floor, and screening the windows to insure proper ventilation. Total cost for these renovations was nearly $7,000.

Students can attend Latchkey regularly, either on a weekly basis or scheduled days, or come only occasionally. Pre-registration is required.

"Anything a child would do at home he can do here," said Lynn, "except here he will be with other children and be cared for while he is doing it. If he wants to watch TV, listen to music, or start his homework, these activities will be available for three hours."

Lynn said there will be a quiet room, equipped with encyclopedias, where children can get started on their homework or just kick back and enjoy reading a good book. 4-H leaders will offer a variety of activities that will develop each child's leadership abilities, creativity, imagination and physical fitness while encouraging personal responsibility.

Joyce Sorenson and Loretta Dandy will be assisting Lynn with student supervision. A nutritious "after school" snack will be offered.

Fees for the latchkey program are based on a sliding scale according to income. There is a $10 registration fee per family.

ADMINISTRATOR—Latchkey director Lynn Johnson is busy ordering supplies, hiring aides, and overseeing construction at St. John Lutheran Church to ensure their after school latchkey program meets Dept. of Education licensing regulations.

IMMUNIZATION

The Michigan Public Health Code requires that kindergarten students and students new to the district must present proof of at least one dose of measles, mumps, rubella, tetanus, pertussis, diphtheria and polio vaccine to enter school. Kindergarten students will not be admitted until proof of immunization is shown and students new to the district must present proof through a transfer of records from another district or from their physician within one month after they enroll or they will be excluded from school until such proof is shown. The Public Health Department in the County Courthouse has waiver forms for those seeking waivers to this code for religious reasons.

Obituaries

Eva Strong

Eva Isabelle Strong, 74, died at her daughter's home in Kingwood, Texas, August 20, 1990, following a short illness.

Mrs. Strong was born March 4, 1916, in Sandusky, Michigan, to Charles and Eva (Markham) Carter.

Eva was married to Robert Wood Strong June 1, 1934, in Flint, Michigan. Her husband preceded her in death in 1981.

Bob and Eva moved to Grayling October 1, 1944, and purchased and operated the Crawford County Avalanche until June 1967.

During their tenure at the Avalanche they brought the paper from a 4-page paper to an average of 10 pages.

Besides her duties as bookkeeper at the paper she served nine years on the Crawford AuSable School Board during which time the Grayling Elementary School was built.

Besides taking care of the books, Eva filled in running some of the presses when needed.

She was also on the committee that successfully convinced the State of Michigan that Kirtland Community College was needed for advanced education in the area.

Following their retirement the Strong's spent their winters in Englewood, Florida, and stayed in Grayling during the summers.

A quote by Eva said, "She loved the area and the people who were so generous and worked so hard to accomplish the good things that happened to Crawford County over the years."

Eva is survived by a daughter Sondra E. Luther and husband Bob of Kingwood, Texas, and Robert W. Strong II and wife Mickey of Alpena, six grandchildren, and five great-grandchildren.

The family requests any memorials be sent to Grayling Elementary School Library.

A memorial service will be held at a later date.

Chamber Update

The Grayling regional Chamber of Commerce is proud to work in cooperation with the Crawford County Avalanche to bring you the "Chamber Update." The Chamber Update will be a weekly column that will supplement the Chamber's quarterly newsletter.

Specifically, the new column will highlight area business and business issues. The articles will be designed to keep local business owners and residents informed of Chamber programs, seminars and projects.

Other issues that will be covered in the "Chamber Update" will be local business milestones such as anniversaries, awards and community involvement projects. It is exciting to note that the Chamber has already been contacted by several area businesses to request support for upcoming Grand Openings or Ribbon Cutting Ceremonies.

If your business is interested in being featured in the "Chamber Update", contact Fran at the Chamber Office, at 348-2921 to set up an interview. Requests must be called in at least two weeks prior to a business's scheduled event.

(Call Betty Pamerleau, 348-8348 for more information.)

Shirley Whiting

Shirley A. Whiting, 49, of Grayling, died on Wednesday, August 22, 1990, at her residence. Funeral services were Sunday, August 26, at Sorenson Funeral Home, McEvers Chapel with The Reverend Donald Brigham officiating.

Mrs. Whiting was born on April 3, 1941, in Romoney, West Virginia, to Edmund and Vivian (Smith) Greben. She was a homemaker and lived in Grayling since 1968.

Bits of Talk

By Fay Bovee

Gary and Pat Swanson of Seminole, Florida, spent a week with her parents, Gus and Sammy Williams. They came to attend Pat's 25th class reunion. They were accompanied by their daughter, Mrs. Rae Anne Brown, who is a teacher in Aurora, Colorado.

Rae Anne's husband is with the Air Force there and was unable to come. Sharon and Lewie Sunson and boys of Cadillac also came over to visit her sister and family. The family had a barbecue and celebrated Pat's birthday. Gary and Pat Swanson's daughter, Marcie, is attending St. Petersburg University. A question has been asked by one of my readers, "Where did the Polyhedron go?" Would someone call and let us know, 348-7017.

Heather Watts, daughter of Vern and Rita Watts, left Saturday, August 25, to return to Central Michigan University for her junior year.

David Trudgeon of Grand Rapids visited his parents, Jack and Aggie Trudgeon last week. David is attending Grand Valley State College to finish up his bachelor's degree.

Elmer Dunham, formerly of Lansing, has moved to Frederic to make his home.

The Crawford County Historical Museum believes they have a first--the first four-generation family to visit the museum. They were Chyna Rood Lowe, her daughter, Nancy Ellis, Nancy's daughter, Marla Ellis, and Marla's daughter, Misty.

Nine-year-old Dwayne Ballard, son of Sgt. 1st Class and Mrs. James Ballard of Ft. Huachuca, Arizona, spent most of the summer with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Wells on Goose Creek Road. Dwayne had an enjoyable summer doing some camping and making short sight-seeing trips in Northern Michigan. He flew to Traverse City in May and returned to his home in Arizona recently.

Vikings Open Football Season With Larger, Stronger Squad

There are three areas of big improvement on the 1990 Grayling High School varsity football team, said Coach Don Stowers in a pre-season interview: more numbers, more senior lettermen and more physical strength on the team.

This year's team boasts 29 players, up six from last season. The squad will also have 12 returning lettermen, up three from 1989.

And perhaps the biggest change will come from the team's year-round weight training program, which Coach Stowers believes helps the mind as well as the body.

There are a lot of small players on the GHS team who can squat 300 pounds parallel to the ground, explained Stowers, and eight to ten players who can squat over 300.

This year's team leader is senior Nate Ginther, who parallel squats 400 pounds. Bench press leader is senior Mick McKinney, who presses 295 pounds.

Of the returning group, four -- Branch, Ginther, McKinney and Thorsen -- have played on the varsity team since their sophomore year.

New players to the '90 squad include seniors Tony DiPonio, Jim Liberty, Adam Mead and Scott Nicholas.

First-year juniors include: Mark Andrus, Don Baker, Ken Bindschattel, Eric Bonamic, Scott Hartman, Larry Henry, Chris Lehti, Shane Lovely and Jim Schwartz.

Sophomores playing for the varsity team include: Matt Gingerich, Jason Medler, Jason Neeley and Gary Schroyer. Head coach Stowers, now in his 4th season at GHS, also works with offensive backs, defensive linebackers and wide receivers.

Assistant coaches are Mike Branch, who handles defensive backs and the offensive line, and Don Ferguson, who coaches the defensive line.

The Grayling Vikings will open their 1990 season in Roscommon against the Bucks this Friday, August 31, at 7:30 p.m.

The GHS junior varsity team will host the Roscommon Vikings in their season opener on Thursday, August 30, at 6:30 p.m.

Sunglasses for Windows

It's like putting sunglasses on a window, says David Bibler, about applying Lumar, solar-controlled window films.

The Micro thin, polyester-mylar films are virtually invisible when properly applied to existing windows.

But the films block up to 80 percent of the heat in summer and retain up to 65 percent of the heat in winter, says Bibler, co-owner of Quality Window Tinting in Traverse City, Grand Rapids and Kalamazoo, with his wife, Judy.

Three types of films -- reflective, non-reflective and Low E series are available, all of which virtually eliminate the ultra-violet rays which cause sun rot, sun fading and sun glare. These films are all covered by a 7-year warranty.

Quality Window Tinting also installs solar control film on motor homes and passenger vehicles. All installations come with a lifetime guarantee.

STATE OF MICHIGAN DEPARTMENT OF NATURAL RESOURCES SUPERVISOR OF WELLS

NOTICE OF HEARING

Take Notice: Pursuant to Act 61 of the Public Acts of 1939, as amended, and the promulgated rules, a public hearing will be held before the Supervisor of Wells and the Advisory Board in the city of Lansing, Michigan, ON THE EIGHTEENTH DAY OF SEPTEMBER (SEPT. 18) 1990, BEGINNING AT 10 A.M., EASTERN DAYLIGHT SAVING TIME IN THE DELTA TOWNSHIP ADMINISTRATION BUILDING, WEST SAGINAW HIGHWAY, WEST SAGINAW AT I-96 BETWEEN LANSING AND GRAND LEDGE, MICHIGAN.

The hearing is for the purpose of hearing evidence and testimony pertaining to the need or desirability of issuing an order in the matter of:
CAUSE NO. 9-9-90

Establishing five 960-acre Prairie du Chien gas drilling units in the Connors Marsh Prairie du Chien Field, as an exception to the spacing established pursuant to Special Order No. 1-86, the applicable spacing order, which provides for 640-acre gas drilling units. Petitioner proposes to expand four existing units with completed wells on them and establish a fifth prospective unit. All proposed units are in T27N, R1W, Lovells Township, Crawford County, Michigan, and are as follows:

A unit described as Section 25 and N1/2 of Section 36 for the State Lovells 1-25 well, drilled on an original unit comprised of the S1/2 of Section 25 and the N1/2 of Section 36.

A unit described as the S1/2 of Section 26, the SE1/4 of Section 27, the NE1/4 of Section 34, and the N1/2 of Section 35 for the State Lovells 1-26 well, drilled on an original unit comprised of the S1/2 of Section 26 and the N1/2 of Section 35.

A unit described as the SW1/4 of Section 27, the S1/2 of Section 28, the N1/2 of Section 33, and the NW1/4 of Section 34 for the State Lovells 1-28 well, drilled on an original unit comprised of the S1/2 of Section 28 and the N1/2 of Section 33.

A unit described as the S1/2 of Section 21, the SW1/4 of Section 22, the NW1/4 of Section 27, and the N1/2 of Section 28 for the State Lovells 2-28 well, drilled on an original unit comprised of the S1/2 of Section 21 and the N1/2 of Section 28.

A unit described as the E1/2 of Section 32, the S1/2 of Section 33, and the S1/2 of Section 34.

Petitioner asserts that establishing the proposed units will prevent the drilling of unnecessary wells and thus will prevent waste. A representative of Petitioner available to discuss the petition is Mr. T.J. Pfister, Jr., at the address of Petitioner, telephone number (713) 870-3613.

The petition is filed in accordance with the provisions of 1939 PA 61, as amended, MCLA 319.1 et seq., and the rules promulgated thereunder.

Petitioner: Shell Western E & P, Inc., Grandview Plaza, Traverse City, Michigan 49684.

Dated: August 17, 1990

R. Thomas Segall
Assistant Supervisor of Wells

Questions regarding Notice of Hearing should be directed to Gordon L. Lewis, Geological Survey Division, Department of Natural Resources, Box 30028, Lansing, Michigan 48909 (PH 517-334-6951).

PUBLIC NOTICE

This is the public release that we will send to the Crawford County Avalanche on August 30, 1990.

The Crawford County School District today announced its policy for free and reduced-price meals or free milk for children unable to pay the full price of meals or milk served under the National School Lunch, School Breakfast or Community School Programs. The following household size and income criteria will be used for determining eligibility.

Each additional family member	+2,782	+232	+54	+3,959	+330	+77

Children from households whose income is at or below the levels shown are eligible for free and reduced-price meals or free milk.

Application forms are being sent to all homes with a letter to parents or guardians. To apply for free or reduced-price meals, households should fill out the form and return it to the school. Additional copies of the application form are available at the principal's office in each school. An application which does not contain all of the following information cannot be processed by the school: (1) monthly source of income received by each household member (such as wages, child support, etc.) OR the household's food stamp case or AFDC number if the household is on food stamps or receives AFDC; (2) names of all household members; (3) social security numbers of head of household or primary wage earner; and (4) the signature of an adult household member or primary wage earner.

FOOD STAMP/AFDC HOUSEHOLDS: If you currently receive Food Stamps or "Aid to Families with Dependent Children" (AFDC) for your child, you only have to list your child's name and Food Stamp or AFDC case number, and sign the application.

The information provided by the household is confidential and will be used only for the purpose of determining eligibility and verifying data. Applications may be verified by the school or other officials at any time during the school year.

If children are approved for free or reduced-price meal or free milk benefits, the household must report to the school increases in household income over $50 per month ($600 per year) and decreases in household size.

Households may apply for benefits at any time during the school year. If a household is not currently eligible but has a decrease in household income, an increase in household size or if a household member becomes unemployed, the household should fill out an application at that time.

In most cases foster children are eligible for these benefits regardless of the household's income. If a household has foster children living with them and they wish to apply for free or reduced-price meals or milk for them, the household should contact the school for more information.

Under the provisions of the policy all building Principals will review applications and determine eligibility.

Parents or guardians dissatisfied with the ruling of the official may wish to discuss the decision with the determining official on an informal basis. The household also has the right to a fair hearing. This can be done by calling or writing the following official: Paul B. Loren, 403 Michigan Ave., 348-764 Each school and the Assistant Superintendent.

Name, Address and Telephone Number of Hearing Official
In a copy of the complete policy, which may be reviewed by any interested party.

In the operation of the child feeding programs no child will be discriminated against on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, sex, or handicap. If any member of a household believes they have been discriminated against, they should write immediately to the Secretary of Agriculture, Washington, D.C. 20250.

There has been another outbreak of Parvo disease in Crawford County. Animal Control Officer Marge Mathew recommends that owners of new puppies keep them home and away from other animals until they have had their shots.

Also, many Crawford County cats are suffering from an upper respiratory infection, which can be treated with antibiotics.

See your veterinarian for shots and medications.

Resource Review

Bruce Patrick Conservation Officer

The problem of solid waste management is receiving much attention of late. Landfills are running out of space and no one wants another built nearby. Recycling is becoming more and more popular and convenient. Waste reduction is seen as a partial solution.

But the most visible symptom of improper solid waste disposal is found along roadsides and forest trails, at highway rest areas and other state facilities such as access sites. This symptom, of course, is the illegal dumping of solid waste, or littering as is generally called.

While most people decry the way our state looks, few actually do much to alleviate the problem. Some will clean up the roadside near their homes. Others, usually organizations, will make a highly publicized day long excursion on a popular river picking up what canoists leave behind. Very few ever undertake the project of cleaning up what others leave behind on a large scale.

That is why it is good to hear of an organization of volunteers willing to help us all out through their efforts. The "Say Yes to a Clean Michigan Association" of Roscommon is such an organization. Formed to promote wise use of our natural resources, this group takes a positive role in cleaning up our environment. On May 19, a group of 66 people worked for 8 hours on the Denton Township Clean-up Day. Their efforts resulted in 230 cubic yards (23 dump truck loads!) of trash being taken to a landfill. In addition to general garbage, there were white goods and steel products, 160 tires and a stake rack truck half full of recyclable material collected. The Association's efforts were supported by donations of food and equipment from businesses in the area.

If you are interested in this type of activity, contact the Say Yes to Clean Michigan Association at P.O. Box 251, Roscommon, Michigan 48653.

Some might call the Osprey a "fish hawk" while others wishing or preferring to be more specific call it Pandion haliaetus. The Osprey is found in many areas around the world, but the only member of the family found in North America is Pandion haliaetus carolinensis. No matter what you call this bird, it is easily recognized. In general its upper parts are dark brown and its under parts are white. The five foot plus wingspan appears to be bent when in flight. Despite the long wing span it only weighs from 3.5 to 5.5 pounds.

The Osprey is so dependent on fish for its food that it has special adaptations for catching and holding its prey. There are a series of spines on the bottom of the feet and a reversible outer toe which other birds of prey do not have. As you know, eagles will sometimes rob an Osprey of its catch. Sometimes it will take on a fish that is too large for it to lift and is drowned. Because of their dependence on fish they are seldom found far from suitable bodies of water or rivers.

Because suitable nesting trees are rather scarce, there has been success in providing man-made nesting platforms for their use. They will use the same tree or platform year after year. They keep adding to the nest until it becomes rather bulky. Two to four eggs are laid and incubated, mainly by the female, for 28 days. The next time you journey south to Houghton Lake notice the nest platforms that are visible to the east of I-75.

Verse or Worse

By Joe Murphy

Shadows Ballet

The dappled shadows dance on the forest floor
They seem to dance in rhythm with the breeze
The bright moon is shining high above
Its light comes soft and filtered through the trees

In my mind I see ballerinas do a ballet
Just for me they do a dance that's ever new
A dance of grace and beauty for an audience of one
Their costumes jeweled by sparkling drops of dew

The soft wind in the tall pines
Makes the sound of music softly played
The shadow dancers pick up each change of beat
Slowing as the music seems to fade

From a tall pine an owl seems to complain
As he breaks his silence with a hoot
Like he was asking who? Is making all the noise?
Like any tired and grumpy old coot

From the pond a busy beaver gives his alarm
For I hear him slap the water with his tail
I look and see the silver ripples spread around him
From the hill I hear a coyote's lonesome wail

The ballet goes on beneath the trees
As the moonlit shadows dance on flying fleet
As the wind increases to a howl
The dancers hurry to keep up with the beat

The moon light fades as clouds darken the sky
The darkness causes the dancers to flee
But I know there will be other moonlit nights
And the ballerinas will be there to dance for me.

We acknowledge with thanks the receipt of contributions from George Olson, Zaucl's Tavern, Hon. Frank Bell of Negaunee, and Mr. and Mrs. W. Letzku of California. During the past week, through the courtesy of our State Highway Department, the Loselle Construction Co., who are now paving U.S. 27, distributed about 150 yards of gravel on one of the main drives in the cemetery. Our Superintendent, Otis Cook and his efficient crew are making every possible effort to complete the work in the Old Cemetery this fall. The long dry spell this month has made it necessary for us to keep our sprinklers running night and day. We are receiving many orders now for the rebuilding of lots—enough to carry us into the winter months.

Second Lieutenant William O. Bolinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Bolinger, 18912 Russel Avenue, Detroit, has been promoted to the rank of First Lieutenant. After serving six months overseas in the European theater of operation, Lieutenant Bolinger was assigned to Moses Lake Army Airfield in the Fourth Air Force as a flight instructor, so that trainee pilots now benefit from his experience in combat. A resident of 505 Clyde St., Grayling, he is a graduate of the Grayling High School.

Amarillo Army Air Field, Amarillo, Texas—Roy J. Kan-fits him for airplane maintenance and he will be sent to an air base where he will assist in keeping America's Flying Fortress in the air for Allied victory.

Robert W. Strong, Managing editor of the Greenville Daily News, and Mrs. Strong, spent Tuesday and Wednesday in Grayling. They are friends of Mr. and Mrs. O.P. Schumann.

Dr. V.L. Garbutt of Detroit, for many years a summer resident on the AuSable River, gets reminiscent about the happy vacations spent in Northern Michigan in the following narrative:

April 30th, 1911, we made the first trip, by train, of course, and arrived in Grayling at 5:30 O'clock. Jess Schoonover and his buckboard met us and took us down to Recreation, a trip of 10 miles, with no cushions on the seats.

"Just 34 years of fishing on the AuSable, what more could a man want? Forty-three years practicing medicine in Detroit never could have been accomplished had it not been for my vacations at Grayling, where men are men and women are proud of it. The fun we used to have! One time we put Hawk and Tee Hanson together in an electric-wired bed, and they thought a snake had bit them; so the bums got even by putting two small fish into our live box and then called the game warden. Well, it cost us $8.75 each."

Corporal Richard Rasmuson of Grayling, is now stationed at this (B-26) Marauder base where he is receiving advanced training under simulated combat conditions. In this final phase of training he is being instructed by men who have had combat experience over enemy-occupied territory. When he leaves here to face "Jerry" he will have mastered the newest tricks and dodges of air war. Cpl. Rasmuson is an armorer-gunner on one of the famous medium bombers that have played such havoc with German defense. He was trained for his key nisto, husband of Mrs. Roy Kannisto (Jenny Wirtanen) of Grayling, has completed his course of studies as an aviation mechanic in this Army Air Forces Technical Training school. McNamara joins meeting at 7:45 p.m.

2. The following resolution was submitted for consideration.

RESOLUTION
WHEREAS the Grayling Township Zoning Board of Appeals at its regular meeting held July 16, 1990 discussed township fees for hearing variance requests and,

WHEREAS said discussion determined the minimum cost to the township to hear variance requests to be $200 and,

WHEREAS appellants are only being charged at present a fee of $20 per case which, in essence, creates the need for township tax dollars to subsidize these variance requests in a minimal amount of $180 and,

WHEREAS Grayling Township Ordinance 83-4 paragraph 32.4 (B) [2] stipulates all fees set by the township board are to cover the administrative costs of such applications and,

WHEREAS zoning Board of Appeals cases are strictly for the benefit of one (1) property owner and increase the value of his property, and,

WHEREAS a $20 charge fails to command any respect for our ordinance in our opinion's and,

WHEREAS it is this board's feeling that, in many instances, this will eliminate frivolous requests thus creating more conformity with the ordinance as written, be it hereby

RESOLVED that the Grayling Township Zoning Board of Appeals go on record as recommending to the Grayling Township Board that fees for zoning variances be set at $200 per case and notwithstanding,

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that this board understands, under certain conditions, the Grayling Township Board may see fit to waive the required fees as deemed necessary and,

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this resolution be forwarded to the Township Board for their action as soon as possible.

3. Motion by McNamara, supported by Medler that the Township Board recognize the need for ZBA petition fee adjustment. However, $200 may create a hardship for the average property owner and hereby sets the fee at $50 to become effective on January 1, 1991. Ayes: five, nays: none. Motion carried.

4. Motion by Ashton, supported by O'Mara, to schedule public hearing for September 11, 1990 regarding creation of a Special Assessment District to blacktop West County Line Road a.k.a. W. North Down River Road. All ayes. Motion carried.

5. Motion by O'Mara, supported by Ashton, to open public hearing for E. AuSable Trail maintenance district. All ayes. Motion carried.

Supervisor Stancil opened the hearing and reviewed action to date.

On July 10, 1990 the Grayling Township Board resolved to proceed with the creation of a Special Assessment District encompassing all owners of property fronting on AuSable Trail East or using same for access. The Special Assessment proceeds will be used for maintenance of AuSable Trail East and may include minimal widening of the road, some grading in summer months and snow removal as necessary.

The purpose of tonight's hearing is to receive and review objections, if any, to the confirmation of the assessment role which will cover the cost of the maintenance of E. AuSable Trail for five years.

Under current state law any protest to the Special Assessment amount must be protested at this hearing in order to protect appeal rights in the future. Any protest can be made in writing or in person at the hearing.

Floor was opened to objections to the Assessment Roll.

Mrs. Ed Shifflett stated their access to property is from M-72 and have no plans to create an access from E. AuSable Trail.

Stancil noted that the Shifflett property has been checked and has been deleted from the assessment roll.

The omission of the Shifflett property has caused an adjustment to the yearly assessment per property code from $125 to $131.58.

Mrs. Shifflett had no other objections.

Floor opened to those in favor of the maintenance project.

Discussion of tree removal. Lee Jenkins & Howard Blackmar state that most property owners agree that any widening should take place on the east side of the road because only a very few trees would need to be removed.

Jenkins and Blackmar have volunteered to remove trees for those property owners who cannot accomplish the task themselves. They will not be removing the stumps.

Blackmar and Jenkins were cautioned that they should have the property owners permission to remove the trees in writing prior to proceeding.

No other comments from the floor.

Motion by Ashton, supported by O'Mara, to return to regular meeting. All ayes. Motion carried.

Motion by O'Mara, supported by McNamara, to resolve to approve the Special Assessment Roll for maintenance of E. AuSable Trail lying between Secs. 15 & 16, T26N, R2W, pending approval by individual property owners of proposed tree removal. Ayes: five, nays: none. Motion carried.

6. Reports on file: Bldg. Dept., Grayling Recreation Authority, Supervisors.

O'Mara reported that CC Transportation Authority has been approached by AuSable Valley EMS, Inc. regarding housing of their offices and staff at the Transportation Authority facility on N. Down River Rd. Details are not yet available.

7. Motion by O'Mara, supported by McNamara to approve payment of bills on vouchers 13281, and 13306 through 13372 in the amount of $17,625.73. Ayes: five, nays: none. Motion carried.

Motion to adjourn by McNamara carried.

H&R Block to Offer Tax School in this Area

Thousands of people are learning the skill of income tax preparation from H&R Block and are earning money as income tax preparers.

H&R Block, the world's largest income tax preparation service, is offering a basic income tax course starting September 10th, with evening classes available. Classes will be offered at many convenient area locations.

During the 13 week course, students will study all phases of income tax preparation and receive actual experience in preparing individual returns. Experienced Block instructors will teach current laws, theory and application, as practiced in Block offices nationwide. There is a classroom discussion on each tax subject and practice problems at every level. Courses are programmed to teach students increasingly complex tax problems as study progresses. Students will find the course both interesting and challenging.

Courses are ideally suited for people who want to increase their tax knowledge and learn how to save money on taxes or who are looking for a rewarding career. No prerequisites are required to enroll.

Qualified course graduates may be offered job interviews for positions with Block. Many accept employment with Block because of the flexible hours available. However, Block is under no obligation to accept employment with H&R Block.

One low course fee includes all textbooks, supplies and tax forms necessary for the completion of the course. Certificates and 7.5 continuing education units will be awarded upon successful completion of the course. Master, Visa and Discover cards are accepted, or a time payment plan is available.

Registration forms and a brochure for the income tax course may be obtained by contacting H&R Block office at:

The Bible Speaks

From Calvary Baptist Church

New Age Michigan Model?

Students in state schools cannot be allowed to bow their heads, close their eyes, fold their hands and give the indication they are involved in Christian Prayer. Then should it be equally wrong to instruct them in transcendental meditation, altered states of consciousness, and other forms of the occult practiced in the religious prayers of Eastern mysticism?

In the New Age magazine, "Education in the New Age" by Jack Canfield and Paula Kimeck, "...Learning how to center one's self is one of the most important processes of all the New Age educational tools..." "Examples include progressively tensing and relaxing each part of the body, starting with the feet and ending with the face muscles; counting one's breath..." In the Michigan Model—Kindergarten, Lesson 26, Teacher Reference is titled "BEGIN WITH YOUR TOES...AND END WITH YOUR NOSE" followed by detailed instruction which "...Begin with your toes" and "now let your head down gently on the floor. Open your mouth. Close your eyes. Let your nose just lie there." In "Mind Games The Guide to Inner Space" by Robert Masters and Jean Houston, under instruction for ASC (Altered States of Consciousness) They give the instructions "Relax your body a bit at a time beginning with the toes..." and end with "the tips the cheeks and the eyes, right on up to the forehead, and over the entire head..." (and end with your nose.) Are two things equal to the same, equal to each other??

This self centering is seen in Lesson one, Teacher Key,

Grade 5, Phase I in the diagram entitled "My Environment" which begins the inner circle with "INNER ME" and moves out to the World through the home and community. As Mary Anne Adams, consultant in the Michigan Educational Association's professional development department has publicly stated, "The way our world is changing, our neighborhood is not a several-block radius. It is now global. We have to make sure students are prepared to live in that world."

In Lesson 5, Student Worksheet, "The Michigan Model for Comprehensive School Health Education Grade 7 Model 1" we find under sample activities recommended "to reduce stress" the term "yoga", another prayer and meditation form for Eastern mysticism and the occult.

Obviously we cannot say that all children who close their eyes, fold their hands, and bow their heads are praying to the Christian God. Neither do we say the Michigan Model forces children to pray to the gods of Eastern mysticism. But on the contrary, we may safely assume children forced into a traditional mode of Christian prayer may end up praying. Should we assume less for those forced into prayer and meditation forms of Eastern mysticism?

CHURCH DIRECTORY

Reading, Writing and Arithmetic

All across our land, hundreds of thousands of young people filled with excitement and apprehension are once again headed "back to school" sporting colorful backpacks crammed with sharpened pencils and spiral notebooks.

Ahead of them is a year filled with new adventures and unforeseen challenges. Our sons and daughters will learn and they will grow. They will have to cope with difficult situations and make intelligent decisions, often complicated by peer pressure.

As we worship God this week, may we pray for wisdom and strength for our children and for ourselves, as they look to us for advice and reassurance in the coming school year.

VFW Offers $500 Reward

The V.F.W. 3736 of Grayling gave many red, white, and blue braids at the fair, with the help of the National Guard. Many people stopped to pick up a braid and chat a while.

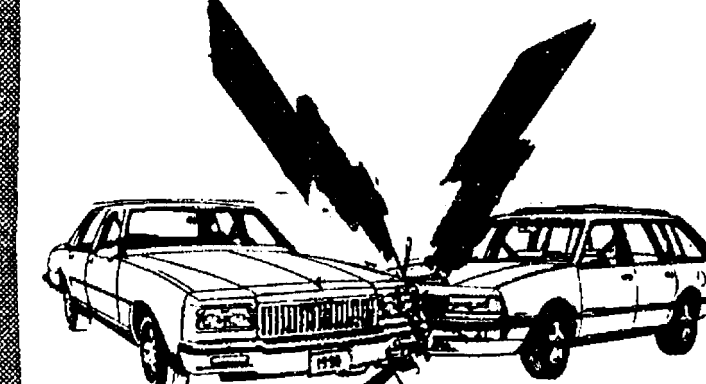

On Frederic Day people bought the V.F.W.'s florescent jewelry and seemed to enjoy them very much.

On September first the Ladies Auxiliary will have a table at the American Legion Hall and will sell candy, baked goods, and miscellaneous things. Everyone is welcome to come and browse.

The V.F.W. also needs any unwanted jewelry and stuffed animals to use as bingo prizes to the men and women at the Meadows of Grayling. No car-ings for pierced ears please.

Once again the Pere Cheney Cemetery has been vandalized. So the V.F.W. Post 3736 and Auxiliary has posted a $500 reward for anyone giving information to Sheriff Hatfield leading to the arrest of the ones doing this crime. Many V.F.W. members worked hard to fix it up in respect for the people buried there.
